Preserving our Southern Heritage

It has been said that before you can know where you are going you must first know where you have been. Preserving Southern history and traditions is a large part of what we do as an organization. The Raid on Camp Ford is opportunity for us to show you the lives and beliefs of a bye gone era and help in our own small way to preserve the heritage of every Southern American. We present exhibits and demonstrations of military, economic, social, and political of the antebellum era. Blacksmiths, tailors, carpenters, and doctors dressed up and using the tools from the era help to explain how things were made and how society functioned in the old south.
